Are you considering developing a social enterprise but finding it all a bit daunting?

That's where we can help.

Why attend?

This interactive day will give you the practical knowledge and the confidence you need to take that first step in setting up your own social enterprise.

We'll give you a clear idea about what's involved. The sessions will take you through the key factors you need to consider, provide you with advice from existing social enterprises, and give you the opportunity to ask the questions to which you need answers.

Our speakers

Our team of experts will assist you.

Join HQN Associate, Elaine Upton; legal experts in social enterprise, Anthony Collins Solicitors; the team involved in developing SHED, Derwentside Homes' social enterprise scheme; and more!

What's covered?

- The latest developments in social enterprise
- Legislation and legal support – including the implications of the New Public Services (Social Value) Act 2012
- Funding – a session to steer you through the funding labyrinth, arming you with information on what's available and how to make it work for you
- Social return on investment – what is it and how can it provide greater leverage with your funding bids?
- Governance – what works and why?

Plus, practical case studies from established social enterprises.

Who should attend?

Anyone involved in, or interested in, setting up a social enterprise scheme, including housing and asset management teams, resident involvement and community development staff, board members and councillors, tenants and voluntary agencies.
